

REFLECTION

Lifelong Learning

Learning at school may have been influenced by many factors outside of your control. Fortunately, we continue to learn throughout our lives through our experiences. Learning can be seen as something that takes place on an on-going basis from our daily interactions with others and with the world around us.

Lifelong Learning

What was the last grade of school you completed?

At what school?

When?

Do you feel you have the skills of your last grade completed?

What subjects did you enjoy and do well in at school?

What subjects were difficult for you?

Were you ever tested for learning disabilities? If you were, do you remember anything about the results? Yes No

Did you ever miss school for long periods of time because of illness, suspension, etc.? Yes No

How do you feel about your reading skills? I need to improve I'm comfortable

How do you feel about your writing skills? I need to improve I'm comfortable

How do you feel about your math skills? I need to improve I'm comfortable

Do you have a computer at home? Yes No

How do you feel about your computer skills? I need to improve I'm comfortable

Do you have a driver's license? Yes No

Do you have any other licenses or certificates that are up-to-date? (CPR, Smart Serve, etc.)

Please list them here →
And include
Where and when you took the training :

"An investment in knowledge pays the best interest."
Benjamin Franklin